If you're looking to ring in the New Year in a grandiose fashion, New York City is the perfect destination as it offers a variety of celebrations filled with champagne toasts, loud music, and confetti. For those who prefer to avoid the crowded streets, or host an intimate soiree for closest friends or family, the impeccably designed amenity spaces at NYC's prestigious condos will be perfect for toasting the New Year.

Magnolia DUMBO – Magnolia Club

Designed inside and out by the renowned Morris Adjmi Architects, Magnolia DUMBO at 160 Front Street offers 320 luxury rentals in the sought-after Brooklyn neighborhood.

Residents at Magnolia DUMBO have access to one of the most extensive amenities suites offered in a New York rental, spanning over 100,000 square feet across the building. The amenities are located in the exclusive Magnolia Club for residents, designed in partnership with WorkOf and founder Charlie Miner that complement the Morris Adjmi-designed building. Residents can have a New Year's Eve party in the Magnolia lounge or play games in the Media and Gaming Lounge, equipped with a large screen console and billiards table.
